MAY 2018 TRIPS

	Lincoln's Cottage (Washington, DC) Abraham Lincoln lived on an uplifting hilltop in Northwest Washington, D.C., while making some of his most critical decisions, including the development of the Emancipation Proclamation. President Lincoln's Cottage uses his example to inspire visitors to take their own path to greatness, and preserves this place as an authentic, tangible connection to the past and a beacon of hope for all who take up Lincoln's unfinished work! Guided tour included. Bring money for lunch afterwards in Shirlington. Wednesday, May 2 Depart: 9:15am Approximate Return: 3:00pm	$27
 GT	U.S. National Arboretum and Harper Macaw Chocolate Factory (Washington, DC) First, feast your eyes on the May splendor of azaleas, roses, and the National Herb Garden by taking a guided tour by bus of our local gem – the U.S. National Arboretum. Perhaps get a glimpse of “Mr. President” and “The First Lady”, the pair of bald eagles nesting high in a tulip poplar tree near the azalea collection. Next, feast your senses on a box lunch (included) before concluding with a private tour of the nearby Harper Macaw chocolate factory, including samples of the finest local chocolates. Wednesday, May 9 Depart: 9:00am Approximate Return: 3:30pm	$43
  GT	St. Michaels (St. Michaels, MD) Escape to St. Michaels on the Eastern Shore of Maryland, a historic town filled with charming shops and attractive restaurants. The area is steeped in history dating from before the American Revolution. After lunch on your own, relax and enjoy beautiful views along the Miles River on an air-conditioned covered boat trip included in the price. Wednesday, May 16 Depart: 9:00am Approximate Return: 5:30pm	$50
GT	Sotterley Plantation (Hollywood, MD) Older than Mount Vernon, older than Monticello, older than the nation itself, Sotterley offers a sweeping view of the Patuxent River and of our shared history. Encompassing nearly 100 acres of rolling meadows, gardens, and shoreline, Sotterley is the sole-surviving Tidewater plantation in Maryland that includes an 18 th -century plantation house, smokehouse, 19 th century slave cabin, and more than 20 other out-buildings. Guided tour followed by catered lunch with river views, included in trip price. Wednesday, May 23: Depart: 9:00am Approximate Return: 3:30pm	$47
